- Home address, including postcode

These details are required by the awarding body.

During the course we may also use online collaboration platforms such as but not limited to, JamBoard to enable virtual collaboration.

1.2 Why do we collect information about you?

We must collect and hold your personal and special category data to manage the following where appropriate:

- Course and event administration
- Accreditation purposes
- Pre- and post-course correspondence
- Course payment (if applicable)

To collect personal and special category data WWA needs a lawful basis for processing under Article 6 and Article 9 of the UK GDPR. For the processing of personal data, WWA will rely on the following lawful basis:

- Legitimate interests: the processing is necessary for our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party, unless there is a good reason to protect your personal data which overrides those legitimate interests. Whenever we use Legitimate Interest to process data, we perform a Legitimate Interest Balancing Assessment (LIA) to enable us to consider any potential impact on you (both positive and negative), and your rights under data protection laws. Your information will not be processed if our interests as a charity override your fundamental rights and freedoms according to the law.
- Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
- Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.

To process special category data, WWA will be relying on the following condition for processing special category data:

- (A) Explicit consent: clear, informed consent has been freely provided for a specific purpose by statement or by a clear affirmative action which signifies agreement to the processing of data.

1.3 What do we do with your information?

Your information is held securely on Microsoft SharePoint, Airtable or local machines accessible only to personnel who require the information to carry out the processes listed in 1.2.

WWA is certified under the Cyber Essentials scheme, for more information please visit www.cyberessentials.ncsc.gov.uk/ or contact DataProtection@welshwomensaid.org.uk. We have undertaken a third-party supplier assessment on all our suppliers and have identified a low risk when using these organisations. Such decisions are assessed on a regular basis and our findings are kept for record purposes. Hard copy information is stored securely at the Welsh Women's Aid's head office.

1.4 How long will we keep your information?

The table below provides further details about how long your personal and special category data will be held. These are in line with Agored Cymru and NOCN recommendations.

Training type	How long do we keep your information?
Agored Cymru Level 2 accredited training	6 years from the course internal verification date ¹

1.6 What are your rights?

You have the right to:

- Information: Individuals have the right to be informed about the collection and use of their personal data (this privacy notice). This is a key transparency requirement under the UK GDPR.
- Access: Ask to see the information about you that is held by WWA (also known as a Subject Access Request).
- Rectification: Have information about you changed if it is not correct.
- Restriction of processing: Restrict the processing of some or all your information if it is deemed to be inaccurate or we are not lawfully allowed to use it.

In addition, the following rights apply only in certain circumstances:

- Avoid automated decision-making: Question decisions made about you by a computer.
- Erasure: Ask for us to delete some or all your information we hold about you (subject to our contractual and/or legal obligations).
- Portability: The right to data portability.
- Withdraw consent: You can withdraw your consent to process your data at any time (if consent is our lawful basis for processing your data) by contacting us via dataprotection@welshwomensaid.org.uk.

To exercise any of these rights please contact dataprotection@welshwomensaid.org.uk.

If you are unhappy with the way your request is handled or disagree with a decision made by WWA regarding your data, you can submit a complaint. In these circumstances you can contact the Data Protection Team and request a review of the decision by emailing dataprotection@welshwomensaid.org.uk.

If you are not satisfied with any outcome from the data protection team, you may wish to apply to the Information Commissioners Office at:
